Quality and documentation

Available documents and their scope

Product and substance information	The download section contains statements on RoHS/REACH and conflict minerals, as well as manufacturer documents on PFAS, TSCA and Prop 65. The issuer, covered products, scope and date of each document must be considered.
Product safety	Product information and published safety guidance support technical assessment. Product characteristics, approvals and limitations of use must be assessed for the specific item and intended application.
Quality management	The published ISO 9001 certificates relate to specific manufacturing entities. They do not establish ISO 9001 certification of MAG GmbH. Each certificate identifies its holder, scope and validity period.
Supply chain and social standards	General customer information covers supply chain security, social standards and the German Supply Chain Due Diligence Act (LkSG). This self-disclosure does not confirm comprehensive checks at every supply chain tier or establish AEO or social certification of MAG GmbH.
Packaging / PPWR	General customer information on the PPWR is available. Statements about specific packaging require identification of the packaging, the relevant delivery and applicable requirements; this does not constitute a blanket confirmation of conformity.
Confidentiality	A general confidentiality statement is published. It must be considered on its own terms and does not replace a separately agreed non-disclosure agreement.

04 Purpose and scope

This document provides general information as of the stated date. It does not replace required product-, packaging- or delivery-specific documentation, create an additional guarantee or constitute acceptance of customer-specific requirements. Statutory obligations and existing contractual agreements remain unaffected.

As a general policy, MAG does not sign customer-provided questionnaires or declarations and provides its own standard documents instead. Whether these meet a particular assessment purpose depends on the specific requirements.

If questions remain after reviewing the documents

Please specify the requirement, relevant items or deliveries and, where applicable, the target market: compliance@mag.de. Further information is subject to review of the specific matter.
